We all live busy lives and moments are captured on our mobile phones with Mum usually missing as she is the one behind the camera taking the photos!

Children grow up so quickly and opportunity for a family portraits slips by with the years and sadly family members can unexpectedly pass away. Professional family portraits are a wonderful way to mark the passing years, the ideal birthday present for mum or dad, a mother's day surprise or a special gift for your grandparents.

Whether you choose a studio shoot or a stunning high country location you will be guaranteed a happy and memorable experience for all the family with exceptional results.

No matter what the occasion I am happy to come to you. Our photography session starts from $125 and can be tailored to suit your requirements.

Whether it is a family portrait, your child's first year or a family milestone, capturing those moments that will be proudly displayed as a forever memory is a gift I always love giving.
